INTRODUCTION

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

Mark 10:15

Just before my sixth birthday, my father passed away one evening while watching his favorite television program. In the days to follow, I was bewildered by my first encounter with death, then overwhelmed with fear that my mother would succumb as well after witnessing multiple fainting episodes and her inconsolable grief.

I slipped into the comfort of self-imposed silence and isolation. In the height of the day, I could be found sitting in the backyard swing pondering the whole situation while gazing at cloud formations. In the evening I staked out the sixth rung of the foyer staircase. From there I could peer into the living room and see my “sleeping” father. For two days he had been laid out for viewing at our home so family, friends, and co-workers could come to pay their last respects. I felt it was of benefit and necessity to maintain the vantage point from the stairs until bedtime in the event he was to awaken. I dared not miss what was inevitably unrequited expectation.

The day before dad's funeral, my mom's friend who we called Aunt Bessie decided to break my solitude by joining me in the backyard. She quietly watched me swing for what seemed like hours. Finally, I broke days of silence by asking her why my father could not wake up. I simply wanted him to wake up so mom would stop crying and we could be happy once again.

She said it was my father's time to go to a place called heaven and live with someone named Jesus Christ. And it was possible for everyone to do the same when it was their time to go, she added. Immediately, I thought of my grieving mother and worried about her leaving me all alone so she could join my father. But Aunt Bessie reassured me that it was not her time yet and she would eventually get better. The most comforting thing I heard however was that Jesus was taking care of my beloved father and this Jesus would be watching over me from heaven like a father, for the rest of my life.

Immediately, the floodgates burst open with many questions. I had a knack for intense interrogation (which my granddaughter has inherited). Aunt Bessie answered what she could sufficiently enough though, for me to become enamored with Jesus Christ. He could not be seen, she said, but I could talk to Him at any time.

Instantly my perplexities about death and fear for my mother's life, was gone and I could not explain the happiness that engulfed me. Although I missed my father and realized I would never experience his demonstrations of love for me again, I was no longer sad or afraid. My adolescent heart had experienced what I now know was inexplicable joy and peace.

I didn't know it at the time, but I had just been introduced to the tangibility of God and the rudimentary elements of prayer. With child-like faith I entered the gate of His kingdom by embracing the words I heard from His vessel of love, Aunt Bessie.

I grew into adulthood, living a self-pleasing life for most of it. But, it was in the living room of a dear friend (who eventually became my spiritual mother and mentor), that I was radically transformed. I was baptized by the Holy Spirit during a prayer accepting His salvation. An insatiable hunger to commune with God through His Word and times of prayer marked my new life.

As it is possible for anyone, through wisdom, knowledge and understanding garnered from the scriptures, prayer and life experiences, I have received the progressive inculcating, reality, benefits and power of prayer. The details of that process and progress would fill more journals than I could possibly write.

The intent of this guide however, is to reintroduce just one of many keys to effective prayer. That is simply to Pray What God Says. I have found that availing yourself to this prayer key can and will gain you access to a divine response. That response will yield a greater relationship with God the Father, through His Son Jesus Christ, with the enabling assistance of the Holy Spirit. It will yield the nourishing and strengthening of the spirit man; the release of blessing, healing and deliverance for yourself and those for whom you pray; and much more. The much more is the perpetual release of divine preparations that eyes have not seen, that ears have not heard, nor has entered into the heart of those who chose to love God. And my heart says Come Lord Jesus.

This once enamored child is continually maturing--through praying what God says--into a woman in love, heart, mind, soul and spirit, with my Heavenly Father.

CHAPTER 1: The Cry

For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

Romans 8:15

Throughout Genesis 1, as God was creating all things and man, He said it was good. We have yet to observe or experience every expression or facet of goodness and beauty that was designed by our Creator in the heavens, on and in the earth, or through the animate and inanimate.

God created man in His image. He formed man's body from the dust of the earth and breathed into him the breath of life. Man became a living soul with a God-given spirit, designed to be in direct and constant communion and relationship with his Creator.

Because of the fall of man in the Garden of Eden, we are all born with an Adamic (or sin) nature. Therefore, our soul is governed by the sensual realm. The soul is the mind, will and emotions. The five senses--see, hear, smell, touch and taste--influences and governs our soulish and behavioral responses. Our response to our senses are played out or evidenced through what we think, what we say and do, and how we feel.

There is an expression that says that the heart is the seat of the emotions. As our emotions are touched in various ways throughout life experiences, each one of us will express joy, hope, gratitude, affliction, fear, sickness, anger, disappointment, brokenness, etc. In concert with these expressions is a corresponding "cry" or sound from our spirit that will command or demand a response from something or someone greater than ourselves. God, who is the source of our spirit, desires that greater to be Himself.

Throughout the scriptures there are diverse ways this "cry" or sound is expressed.

1. To cry is to weep, shed tears, sob, bawl, whimper, whine, moan, groan, lament, grieve, mourn, or wail:

Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou hearest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.
2 Chronicles 34:27

Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. Psalm 39:12

For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. 2 Corinthians 5:4

Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. John 16:20

Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly. Psalm 31:9

Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me. Isaiah 38:14

2. To cry does not have to be caused by sadness or negative feelings as in the previous examples of scripture. It also means to sing out, or praise with joy or excitement:

And He said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear. Exodus 32:18

And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing. Genesis 29:35

Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. Revelations 19:5

Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. Nehemiah 12:43

But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee. Psalm 5:11

And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost. Act 13:52

3. To cry means to utter with spontaneous expression:

When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; Esther 4:1

Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and He cried. Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. And He wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence.
Genesis 45:1-3

4. To cry means to proclaim, announce, shout, to mobilize or motivate:

And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. Leviticus 25:10

Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever. Jeremiah 3:12

5. To cry means to call out or call to:

The righteous call to God--

A Psalm of David. Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit. Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle. Psalm 28:1-2

I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me.
Psalm 57:2

By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty. Job 35:9

Even wicked people cry out but to other gods--

Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more. Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation. Judges 10:13-14

The Word says that everything created cries out--

Such as animals (beast):

And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged. Isaiah 13:22

He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. Psalm 147:9

The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness. Joel 1:20

But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Jonah 3:8

Inanimate things cry out:

And He answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out. Luke 19:40

Devils and unclean spirits cry out:

And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And He rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that He was Christ. Luke 4:41

For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. Acts 8:7

Cities cry out:

And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know. Genesis 18:20-21.

And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven. 1 Samuel 5:12

Even virtue cries out:

Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? Proverbs 8:1

6. There is a cry in supplication for an immediate need, to implore, beg, plead, beseech, solicit, or entreat:

If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, for thy name is in this house, and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. 2 Chronicles 20:9

And He said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. Exodus 33:18

I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. 2 Kings 20:3

O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer. Nehemiah 1:11

Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word. Psalm 119:154

7. The cry of intercession is a request on behalf of others, to travail or appeal:

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for He shall bear their iniquities. Isaiah 53:11

For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. Jeremiah 31:6

And prayed unto him: and He was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD He was God. 2 Chronicles 33:13

That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee. 1 Kings 8:52

But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. Jeremiah 27:18

Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them. Hebrews 7:25

By nature and divine design every human being has a heart cry or sound. As a believer--believing in your heart, accepting the redemptive work of Jesus Christ and confessing Him as Lord and Saviour—your regenerated spirit cries out for appeasement or fulfillment from God.

Even an unsaved person has a heart cry. While exercising the liberty of free-will that God has given to all of us, a carnal-minded (or earthbound) person is self-assertive, self-gratifying, and self-willed. He has a tendency to not desire or submit to the spirit of God. The spirit of God and the Word of God finds no place in his thoughts, emotions, speech or decisions and choices. Instead they will defer to sensual or carnal ideologies, pleasures, solutions and remedies.

Years ago, before accepting Jesus Christ as Lord of my life, I considered myself a decent person. Although I acknowledged God, I did not serve Him by reading or studying the scriptures, prayer or attending church. I thought I had everything that was essential for a good and happy lifestyle. But I had issues that troubled my mind and heart as well. With God excluded from my life, unfruitful decisions made solutions to my problems elusive. I resigned to accepting and responding to lingering challenges the way I thought best.

But God heard the cry of my heart when no one else was listening, and where no one else was looking. He reconnected me with a friend in a wonderful way. My best friend Cheryl sowed 13 years of obedient and dedicated evangelistic ministry into my life. She planted the seed of the Word in every conversation and watered it by taking me to church services, conferences, her family gatherings, and most important, intercession for me in her prayer closet. I believe that when the Lord heard my cry for something new, He heard and honored the cries of Cheryl's heart to see me saved and filled with the Holy Spirit.

Throughout those 13 years I had many opportunities to accept an altar call but I refused, holding on to the notion that eventually, I could fix me all by myself. In retrospect, arrogance and stubbornness had been a barrier to my deliverance from the problems in my life.

On August 5, 1992, Cheryl needed to pick up some documents from an evangelist in Moreno Valley so I agreed to accompany her so she could use the Express lane. As we stepped into Evangelist Prosperity's living room, I immediately felt very hot. It was as if someone was pouring hot liquid on my head. Although the air conditioner was on in her home, I rationalized that my body was adjusting to coming in from the very warm temperature outside. So I sat quietly to cool off. After a few minutes

Evangelist Prosperity glanced at me and asked if I was saved. I said, "No." Then she asked if I wanted to accept Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour. Without hesitation I replied, "Yes. Sure why not?"

As the three of us joined hands and Evangelist Prosperity began to pray for me, I felt the heat on my head intensify to what seemed like a thick liquid pouring from my head and neck, down to my feet. My heart raced, my legs felt too limp to stand. I thought I was having a heart attack or some other physical malady. I tried to tell them to call 911 but I couldn't speak English. With tears streaming down my face, peace and joy enveloped my very being and my lips stammered in tongues for nearly an hour.

Cheryl fell to her knees weeping and praising the Lord because she was able to witness the fruit of her labor from the prayers, and the planting and watering of the Word into my life. To some it would seem that I had a radical conversion experience. But I would never trade it for anything else because that experience has kept me believing, knowing and trusting that God is real and He loves me.

In my introduction to this book, I reflected on the peace and joy I experienced when I first heard about Jesus Christ from Aunt Bessie. But when I decided to accept Him as my Lord and Saviour in 1992, that same peace and joy embraced me but in a greater measure. I am fully persuaded that God's plan and purpose for my life is greater than I or anyone else could have fashioned it.

Since that day, I have learned that as you commit your life to Jesus Christ and receive the infilling of the Holy Spirit, there is a divine enablement to begin, build and establish a relationship with God. It is only through a relationship with Him, through learning the scriptures and prayer, that you will be able to live a regenerated life. This is a life that can be conformed and transformed daily to the likeness of Jesus Christ.

When my heart was crying out, I was not aware that it was directed toward God. There is a cry of our heart and it is of a hungry, thirsty spirit man crying out to his Creator. Even in death, the word says that the spirit of man returns to the Creator, our God. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Ecclesiastes 12:7.

If we consistently allow the cry of our heart be directed toward the Lord, we are better able to submit our soul (mind, will and emotions) to His spirit. We have to allow ourselves to be subject to, in daily reliance upon, and in compliance with God and His holy scriptures. Commitment to desiring our thoughts and behavior to be in consistent alignment with the Holy Spirit will yield a lifestyle led by a spirit man that is in deference to holiness and righteousness. This I say then, walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. Galatians 5:16.

God created and enables our hearts to cry out to Him: And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Galatians 4:6.

He hears and is attentive to the cry of our heart: Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. Psalm 130:2.

He responds to the cry of our heart and causes it to be filled with joy and gladness: But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. Isaiah 65:18.

He is a defender for the cry of the heart that seeks protection and justice: And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though He bear long with them? Luke 18:7.

God has an ultimate plan for every cry of the heart: And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Revelations 21:4.

The cry of every man's heart is for provision, protection, health and well being. We require direction, revelation, truth, justice and more. There is nothing or anyone better to turn to than the Creator of all things, the Lord our Maker. He has made a covenant--His Word--that guarantees that He is the one who can provide His joy, peace, protection, His provision, plan, solution and elevation to our life.

If you have not accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord you can do so now. Say the following and mean it from your heart.

Father, your Word says that sin separates us from you. But when Jesus Christ was put on the cross, He bore the sin of the world. The shedding of His blood was the perfect sacrifice necessary to redeem all mankind from the consequences of sin and that sacrifice brought us into right relationship with you. So now, I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that Jesus died for all my sin. I repent of my sin. I renounce and am willing to forsake a life of sin. I ask you to forgive me. I believe in my heart that you have removed sin far from me and put it on the cross. I believe that by your power, you raised Jesus from the dead and He is now Lord over sin and death. As I give my heart to Jesus, I confess Him as my Lord and that I am a new creature. Old things have passed away and all things are become new. Each day, I will place my hope, trust, needs and expectations in You in the name of Jesus.

When you receive Jesus, you have accepted what He has done for you on the cross. You are redeemed and have become a child of God for all eternity.

As many as received him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name. John 1:12

CHAPTER 2: The Lie

...The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

Psalm 14:1-2

The lies of satan are many. To follow are some we hear most often. I choose to allow what the scriptures have to say be my opinion of the truth.

1. Lie: There is no God.

The truth according to the Word of God:

But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation. Jeremiah 10:10

For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; 1 Timothy 1:9

For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. 1 Timothy 4:10

2. Lie: There is no hell.

The truth according to the Word of God:

And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; 2 Peter 2:2-6

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. Revelations 1:18

3. Lie: You are the only one going through what you're going through.

The truth according to the Word of God:

And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

Numbers 11:17

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Romans 15:1

4. Lie: Your circumstance is greater than you can bear.

The truth according to the Word of God:

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. John 14:18

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 1 Corinthians 10:13

5. Lie: God does not care about you.

The truth according to the Word of God:

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. Hebrews 13:5

And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. Leviticus 20:26

That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. Ezekiel 11:20

6. Lie: You can get to Heaven with good works and without Jesus.

The truth according to the Word of God:

Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. 1 John 4:15

No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. John 6:44

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
Romans 10:9

7. Lie: The Bible is just a book written by men.

The truth according to the Word of God:

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: 2 Timothy 3:16

8. Lie: Jesus was only a prophet.

The truth according to the Word of God:

And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. Luke 4:41

Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Acts 3:26

9. Lie: There are no miracles for the New Testament church.

The truth according to the Word of God:

Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. 1 Corinthians 12:27-28

10. Lie: It's OK to worship any god.

The truth according to the Word of God:

For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.
Psalm 96:5

The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen. Zephaniah 2:11

They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off. Hosea 8:4

And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 2

Corinthians 6:16

The scriptures have much to say about lies and liars:

Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
Isaiah 28:14-15

Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD. Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders. And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD. Jeremiah 9:2-6

What are lies and who are liars?

1. Lies are false, untrue, evasive, exaggeration, and misrepresentation.

A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies. Proverb 14:5

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; 1 Timothy 4:1-2

2. Lies are perversion, distortion, corruption, slanted and twisted.

For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd. Zechariah 10:2

And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. Romans 1:23-25

But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness 2 Peter 2:10-15

3. Lies are inaccuracy, misconstruction, and contradiction.

Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. 1 John 2:15-17

4. A lie is a rumor, hoax, forgery, a counterfeit, it is shameless, defamation, and fake.

If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: 1 John 1:6

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; 1 Timothy 4:1-2

5. Liars deny, dispute, challenge, rebut, negate, or attempt to overthrow.

The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. Psalm 119:69

The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. Psalm 58:3

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 2 Peter 2:1-3

6. Liars mislead, deceive, or misinform.

If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people. Micah 2:11

And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies. Jeremiah 20:6

Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked: Amos 2:4

For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd. Zechariah 10:2

God has made a provision for His creation. It is the words of His holy scriptures. When we choose to read, hear, learn and speak the Word of God it is able to save us, deliver us, and protect us from lies and liars.

CHAPTER 3: The Truth

But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

1 John 2:27

Truth is defined as integrity, righteousness, sincerity, veracity, accuracy, just and authentic. The Holy Spirit is the spirit of truth. When you received Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour, and the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, you became the temple and tabernacle of God. The spirit of truth dwells IN you and is opposed to falsehood, lies or deceit. The Holy Spirit reveals truth as you study to understand and know God through the scriptures and relationship with Him through prayer. His truth is found in the scriptures and the scriptures are truth.

And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, Exodus 34:6

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; Titus 1:2

That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: Hebrews 6:18

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit. Proverbs 12:17

For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth; Ephesian 5:9

But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: 2 Thessalonians 2:13

And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. 1 John 3:19

For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. 3 John 1:3

2. The spirit of truth is reality, factual, genuine, sound, valid, certain, upright and credible. The Holy Spirit of God is WITH you and is opposed to hypocrisy, pretense, deception, custom or over-inflation.

Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Hebrews 10:22

I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me. Psalm 119:30

Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth. Psalm 119:142

For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. John 1:17

Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Timothy 2:4

3. The spirit of truth is inside information, closeness, openness, liberal and believable.

The Holy Spirit of God HEARS you and will answer.

And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. 1 John 5:11-13

For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. 1 Timothy 2:3-4

The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. Psalm 34:15

He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. Psalm 145:19

For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. Isaiah 30:19

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? Luke 18:7

4. The spirit of truth is faithful, honest, honorable, candor, and frank. The Holy Spirit of God HELPS you and answers with fidelity, sincerity and punctuality in keeping promise, mercy and kindness.

For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Habbakuk 2:3

All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies. Psalm 25:10

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. John 8:32

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. John 14:6

Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. John 18:37

Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth. 2 Peter 1:12

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. John 4:23-24

5. The spirit of truth is strictness, a principle, rule, law and precept. The Holy Spirit of God PROTECTS you with the true doctrine of the gospel.

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Galatians 3:1-5

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God: Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever: Psalm 146:5-6

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; Ephesians 6:14

Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: 1 Peter 1:2

CHAPTER 4: The Word

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:1

The truth is the Word of God. The Word is the will and plan of God and is of God. The God-inspired written Word is called His holy scriptures. The scriptures give us history and the revelation of the future of God's creation. They are the voice of God revealing Himself to His creation and is the basis and foundation of God's power. It is the manual that outlines His plan for man's individual and collective purpose and destiny.

By studying the scriptures you discover God's character and virtue, and the will (covenant or provisional promises) He has given to every believer. You have an opportunity to learn, know and understand His authority and the authority you have in the name of Jesus Christ. Through a consistent dependence on the Holy Spirit to assist you in developing your relationship with God, you gain wisdom, knowledge and understanding of the scriptures, and will discover what His expectations are of you and what you can expect from Him.

The degree or level of the Word that abides in you, plus your faith, plus sincere desire, plus the confession that comes out of your mouth can equal the degree or level of what you can expect to manifest in your life. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Ephesians 3:20.

By studying the scriptures you find out what the Word of God is TO YOU. It is: perfect, pure, sure, right, nigh thee, established, made flesh, sent by God, salvation, faithful, the seed, testimony, sword of the spirit, quick, powerful, good, settled, a lamp, a light, it is true and reveals the truth, it is life, a flaming fire, deliverance, life, healing, spirit, sweet, unlimited, operative, eternal, divine strength or ability, effective, a discerner (cuts out the unnecessary, adds what is needed, determines if you have the nature of God and walking out the purposes of God), it is alive, the covenant, a promise, precept, statute, command, and the law.

You also find out what the Word of God DOES FOR YOU. The sovereign work of God through the Holy Spirit: Converts the soul, making the simple wise, rejoices the heart, enlightens the eyes, rewards, purifies, redeems, reconciles us to God, motivates, causes us to rest in the law, boasts of God, approves excellent things, is a light to those walking in darkness, instructs the foolish, is a teacher of babes, causes us to walk in godliness, judges, cleanses, consecrates, makes us obedient, purges, refines, causes you to overcome, increases, sanctifies, redeems, abides in us, heals, opposes sin, runneth very swiftly, gives understanding, delivers, is magnified, gives peace, performs, goes forth out of His mouth, warns, hastens, stands forever, is never broken, leads, humbles, keeps us, talks, reproves, instructs, is sent, directs, rains. It is fulfilled/manifested, executed, it casts out spirits, does not pass away/eternal, leads us to Christ, quickens, establishes, settles you, reveals God and our need for and dependence on Christ, reveals God's character, will and authority, gives wisdom, knowledge, understanding, council and revelation, helps you reverence God, translates you, propels you, accelerates you, makes you not ashamed. There is no condemnation to those who are in Christ, opens the eyes, ears, transforms, renews, and it restores.

You find out WHO YOU ARE in the Word.

You have been redeemed, bought with a price with His precious blood: For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Corinthians 6:20.

Because of the Word of God you have been forgiven, made clean and reconciled to God: For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. Romans 5:10.

As a believer in Jesus Christ, you are able to cast out devils in His name: And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; Mark 16:17.

You will also discover that you have been called and chosen according to God's purpose: Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, 2 Timothy 1:9.

You are a branch connected to the vine: Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. John 15:4.

You are an epistle, a letter of Christ, not written with ink: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. 2 Corinthians 3:3.

The Word says that you are servants of God: But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. Romans 6:22.

You are a part of the body of Christ: Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 1 Corinthians 12:27.

A peculiar people, aliens, ambassador, heavenly representative: But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: 1 Peter 2:9.

You are a bold witness for Christ: But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. Act 1:8.

You are an heir of God and joint heir with Christ Jesus: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. Romans 8:17.

You are the salt of the earth: Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

Matthew 5:13

A king and priest: And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. Revelations 5:10.

Isn't it great to know that you are blessed in the city and in the field?:
Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.
Deuteronomy 28:3.

You are the head and not the tail, above and not beneath: And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them: Deuteronomy 28:13.

You are rich in Him: Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him? James 2:5.

Filled with the fruit of the spirit: And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; Ephesians 5:18.

Baptized in the Holy Spirit: And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Acts 2:4.

You are endued with power from on High: And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. Luke 24:49.

The Word says that you can overcome the wicked one and the world: I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father. 1 John 2:13.

And you are free from sin and death and the law of sickness, disease and captivity: For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. Romans 8:2.

The Word of God will affirm what you have, what you can do, and who you are in Christ Jesus.

We are to be mindful of God by:

Remembering the Word—I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word. Psalm 119:16.

But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them. Psalm 103:17-18.

Learning the Word daily—Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. Matthew 11:29.

Seeking after God through the Word—But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Hebrews 11:6.

Meditating in the Word—My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes. Psalm 119:48.

Getting an understanding of the Word—Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works. Psalm 119:27.

Considering the Word—And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. Psalm 64:9.

Our ears are for hearing and is the gate of access to faith and a point of influence.

Use your ears to hear and be taught the Word—It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. John 6:45

Retain what you hear—But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. Luke 11:28

Pay attention to what you hear for knowledge and understanding—My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding: Proverbs 5:1

Take heed and obey what you hear—Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. 1 Timothy 4:16

Our eyes are the point of perception and observation.

Use your eyes to diligently seek truth and understanding from the Word of God—But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Hebrews 11:6

Observe or pay attention to what you see—Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Matthew 28:19-20.

Our mouth is used for the outward expression of our heart and mind.

With every opportunity you should rejoice over the Word—Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. 1 Chronicles 16:10.

Use your mouth to speak the Word—Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 1 Corinthians 2:13

Use your mouth to inquire or ask God questions about your life and concerns—One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple. Psalm 27:4

Praise the Lord with your mouth—For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. Hebrews 2:11-12

Preach or share the Word with others—Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. 2 Timothy 4:2

Tell about the redemptive work of Jesus to those who have not heard—Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Matthew 28:19

Declare to yourself that the Word of God is truth and light—This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 1 John 1:5

Proclamations are seeds for the harvest of souls—The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; Isaiah 61:1

Decree or apply the Word to every situation or circumstance—Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways. Job 22:28

Speaking what the Word says is appropriating the power of God—If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Peter 4:11

What we take to heart rules and governs our emotions and affections. The Word of God should have priority over what is allowed to be a seed to take root in your heart.

Hide or guard the Word as you allow it to take an abiding place in your heart—But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: 1 Corinthians 2:7

Keep your hope in the truth—Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word. Psalm 119:114

Love and cherish the Word—And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it. 2 John 1:6

Keep or obey the Word—But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. 1 John 2:5

Trust in the Word—For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 1 Thessalonians 2:3-4

Gladly and humbly receive the Word in every capacity (exhortation, correction, rebuke, admonition)—Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Acts 2:41

Obey the Word with sincerity—If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. Job 36:11

Rejoice in the Word as a priceless, precious treasure—I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil. Psalm 119:162

Choose to stand in awe of the Word because of the brilliance of it—Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. Psalm 33:8

Do not forsake the truth—Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. Proverbs 4:5-6

Choose to know God through His Word—And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 1 John 2:3

Believe the Word because it is truth—For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. 1 Thessalonians 2:13

Delight in the word—But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. Psalm 1:2

We use our hands and feet for functional, practical application and activity.

Write out the scriptures, take notes during sermons and teaching sessions, take note of your revelation of the truth during personal study—And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. Habakkuk 2:2

Do what the Word tells you to do—And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. 1 John 3:22

Continue in (obey) and be reliable and consistent—But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; 2 Timothy 3:14

You can overcome challenge by walking in or activating the authority the Word has given you—I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. 1 John 2:14

Let everything you put your hands to be done with excellence, integrity and diligence—Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God. Ecclesiastes 5:19

Walk in or be a witness to others of what you know and believe of the word—The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways. Deuteronomy 28:9

Activating the Word of God in your life takes time and concerted effort. That effort is naturally and spiritually appropriating the scriptures to every facet of your being. As you study, meditate and learn to tap into God through His Word, He will tap into your life. Yielding and submitting to the transforming power of the scriptures and the Holy Spirit allows God to transition you for the greater.

Alignment to His Word and its truth aligns you for kingdom experiences where you will have revelation of your assignments, God's plan and purpose. And as you position yourself in the places He desires to find you, it yields passport access and the release of a greater measure of His presence and power.

CHAPTER 5: Prayer

And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

Revelations 8:4

Prayer is a conscious decision to communicate with God, which helps you develop an intimate spirit-to-spirit relationship with Him. Prayerful communion with God is by inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Communion and union with Him is the outcome of your focused attention to honor, worship and discover who He is to get an understanding of His virtues.

Getting God's attention through prayer invites Him to intervene in the affairs of the earth and your life. If you position yourself to learn about Him, to know His heart and mind, you will increasingly become aware of the open heaven access that brings the unseen into the seen—bringing kingdom blessings into manifestation. Prayer facilitates the manifestation of God's will and purpose.

1 Thessalonians 5:17 says that we are to pray without ceasing. You can pray at anytime and in anyplace but find an ideal location where you are least likely to be interrupted or distracted. Many times when you make up your mind to pray, it seems that the phone will ring, someone will knock at the door, an urgent matter that needs your full attention will pop up, or you get sleepy. But prayer is the lifeblood to your spiritual health and wealth and often it will be necessary to press through hindrances. Do not relegate prayer to religious formality but allow it to be an opportunity to approach the presence of God with sincerity, humility of heart, and passion. You can offer up earnest, specific and bold prayers. Your bold access is accommodated by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ. Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:14-16.

Prayer is your opportunity to ask forgiveness and deliverance from sin, iniquity and transgressions. God wants you to seek Him for the spiritual ability to crucify your flesh and to seek Him to obtain His will, agenda and council for your life. Prayer is two-way communication where you learn how to talk to God about your life experiences, relationships and circumstances, and in turn, learn to hear and know His voice. So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. Proverbs 24:14

Prayer delivers the necessary spiritual sustenance to understand what is being ushered into the time and seasons of your life. Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. Jeremiah 33:3

Through prayer you learn to know the MIND of God (His motives/methods, intentions, nourishment and details):

M-Motives /Methods of God: You learn of His sovereignty, love, compassion, faithfulness, grace and mercy--The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever; the thoughts of his heart to all generations. Psalm 33:11

I-Intentions toward you, His creation--For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Jeremiah 29:11

N-Nourishment and provision—But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19

D-Details of His will for your life--And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. Romans 8:28

You have the opportunity to know the HEART of God. The HEART of God is His character and the nature of His virtues. Some include holiness, expressions, authority, righteousness and truth:

H-Holiness--And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. Leviticus 20:26

E-Expressions--O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Romans 11:33

A-Authority--And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him. Mark 1:27

R-Righteousness--For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright. Psalm 11:7

T--Truth--He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.
Deuteronomy 32:4

Through prayer you can learn and know God's will for your assignment, purpose and destiny. Prayer also builds your faith in the scriptures and the covenant promises found in them. Faith is the assurance that you have been reconciled to God through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. The confidence and faith in your salvation is that you are saved, healed, delivered, protected and possess the promise of eternal life with Him. Through faith you can have access to God in prayer. Through faith you gain the habitation or indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit (your comforter, helper and teacher) to become a fellow citizen of the household of God to believe that all things are possible.

The law of faith is to believe that He is. Faith says that He is a rewarder to those who seek Him diligently. If you begin to search, know, and believe what the scriptures say, then you will confess with your mouth to agree with God and His word. In addition, there is a progressive desire for the will of God to be accomplished in your life through knowledge and understanding of His scriptures.

Prayer establishes hope. When you HOPE in God, you will begin to:

H--Hear Him through His word, prayer and your experiences--My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: John 10:27

O--Obey His word and submit to the care and charge of the pastor He has designated to shepherd over you--And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD. Jeremiah 23:4

P--Pray the word of God without ceasing-- Pray without ceasing.
1 Thessalonians 5:17

E--Expect His response--And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. Isaiah 65:24

When you HOPE in God, in return are some of His benefits.

H--His Hearing ear--But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him. Psalm 4:3

O--Open heaven access to His presence--Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. Malachi 3:10

P—Peace while you wait for His response to your prayers—The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace. Psalm 29:11

E—Eternal results—You have Christ in this world. You are not alien of the commonwealth of His kingdom. You are not a stranger to the covenant promises. You have His glory (the presence of His virtue) in your life. You have earnest, sincere expectations—Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. Ephesians 2:11-13

Prayer establishes TRUST in God.

T—Turn to Him and tarry in His presence—For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Habakkuk 2:3

R—Rest in and rely on His finished work—But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent. 1 Kings 5:4

U—Understand His ways are not our ways—For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. Isaiah 55:8

S—Surrender to Him—Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. James 4:7

T—Take Him at His word—And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. 2 Chronicles 20:20

Prayer will build you up and establish you in the faith. You are able to abound through and in His power. You can exercise spiritual authority, influence and dominion over natural and spiritual matters and circumstances. Prayer enables you to develop a relationship with God for an abiding life with His abiding presence. An abiding life in Jesus Christ will establish, cultivate, nourish and discipline your spirit, soul, mind and body.

Prayer reveals us in our fallen state, because our old identity prefers to be independent of God. The old nature believes that our own conscious is good or god. It has the attributes, characteristics, and disposition of and to sin. Personalities, traits, attitudes, behavior, and conduct defers to the flesh. But sin is a point of access and positions us for satan to attack, influence and dominate our lives.

Yielding and submitting to prayer aligns you to God's process of conforming you to His image. His processing is achieved by the divine activity of the Holy Spirit. Your "old man" nature and disposition is put to death through your proactive drawing on and working out of the indwelling presence and power of the Holy Spirit.

Processing by the Holy Spirit develops you for your new identity. This new identity prepares you for purpose and the fulfillment of your existence. During the process you will find that you're unable to fit everywhere and with everyone because God is developing you for a holy lifestyle and for service. Matthew 10:8 says that your reasonable service as a believer is to Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

The Holy Spirit processes you to be clothed, covered and crowned for citizenship in the kingdom of God. He processes you for purification. Purification or consecration is giving up self, taking up your cross so that you desire a changed disposition. Prayer helps facilitate a renewed disposition that is dependent and reliant on God. The renewed man has a faithful and obedient nature toward God. A renewed nature will outwardly manifest the inner workings of the Holy Spirit.

God also processes you for sanctification. Our sanctification came through the finished work of Jesus Christ, the shedding of His blood to redeem us from the curse of the law, adjusting and aligning our carnal nature to a spiritual nature that is in right standing with God. But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

1 Thessalonians 2:13.

Sanctification enables you to crucify your flesh, allowing the word of God to operate efficiently and effectively in and through your life. Through prayer, there is a perpetual transformation to His likeness. A Christ-like character confirms that the functional identity of Jesus Christ dwells in you. The results of sanctification, is an attachment and attentiveness of your senses to the things of God. Your flesh will not be easily subject to earthly influence or distractions, but rather, it becomes your nature to be circumspect in your thinking, your words and behavior. Through sanctification you are not subject or bound to man's opinions, philosophies or ideologies that excludes God (intellectualism). In addition, you will have lesser dependence on your abilities that do not glorify God (the arm of flesh).

The outcome of prayer brings about a transformation where 2 Corinthians 3:2 says, Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men. Prayer imparts an eternal and precious deposit to equip you and empower your gifts, talents and abilities. This impartation brings favor into your life and vindication from the residue of any shameful past. Your physical, mental or emotional persona won't reflect the wounds or scars left from experiences that satan may have used to try to destroy you.

Prayer gives you a greater desire and ability to disengage from the sources of corruptible influences or environments. It also develops, nurtures and strengthens a consciousness of God and His Kingdom. You gain a quicker and easier yieldedness to His will. Motives borne out of a right relationship with Jesus Christ is a life that desires to be pleasing in His sight. It is a life that desires to be taught how to become a spiritual partaker of His divine nature.

A spiritual partaker is a born-again child of God, filled with the Holy Spirit, progressively moving into sonship and heirship with Jesus Christ and God through obedience. Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2 Peter 1:4.

The redemptive work of Jesus Christ has put you in right standing with God. His righteousness restored the original intent of God to you, and that was dominion. The authority you now possess is in the name of Jesus. His name activates power in heaven to give you dominion rights to decree, declare and proclaim the will of God in the heavens and the earth. The kingdom of God (the Holy Spirit) is in us to bear the righteous fruit of the Holy Spirit. You can bear the fruit of the spirit as long as there is a constant and obedient yieldedness and submission to what God orchestrates in your life, where He directs your steps, and how He sustains you. In other words, when God's agenda becomes your agenda through prayer and the divine assistance of the Holy Spirit, you can become a sure house of righteousness, joy and peace. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. Galatians 5:22-23. For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth; Ephesians 5:9.

As a spiritual partaker of the divine nature of Jesus Christ you are able to hear, see, receive, say and do what the word says. By hearing and heeding the word of God you should be in expectancy of divine results. When you see or observe the workings of the Holy Spirit in your life, you are discerning what God is doing or will do.

Receive the word of God gladly to embrace truth, life and peace. Be a spiritual partaker who speaks out the scriptures and decrees, declares and proclaims what God says. If you do what the word says to do, you are walking out or laboring in righteousness.

Signs, wonders and miracles will follow your life enabled with the power and divine resources of God. Manifestations of the gifts of the spirit will operate as kingdom authority enables you to have favorable effects on environmental elements and time. You can have the character and power to represent the kingdom of God through your words and actions, aligning yourself to spiritual order and protocol. There is open heaven access for you to become a steward of the mysteries of God where the potential of revelation can be limitless in levels, degrees, measures, realms and dimensions. And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Luke 8:10.

Through a consistent and passionate prayer life you can discover the virtue of God. His virtue is revealed through His names. In the Book of Luke 2:36-38, we are told about a woman named Anna, a prophetess who did not depart from the temple. v36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity; v37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

v38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

Anna's consistent, passionate and fruitful prayer life no doubt caused her to learn and know the virtue (names) of God. Your dedication to prayer can ignite a passion to get into His presence, please Him through service and giving, and purify yourself. Passion provokes you to put God first, putting away idols or compromise that can steal your fire and devotion for Him. Your passion and desire should be to consecrate yourself to access a higher spiritual plain where you can become a God chaser and God pleaser.

Passion is zeal, excitement, strong feelings, eagerness, abandon, desire, hunger, thirst, love, strong affection, partiality, keen interest, preoccupation, worship, adoration, involvement, and thirst for knowledge. God becomes the object of your passion, devotion and affection. He is your beloved, heart's desire and your hope.

A passionless relationship with God is cold, unemotional, unloving, unaffectionate, uninterested. You are spiritually distant, insensitive, uninviting, unimaginative, spiritless, self-possessed, detached, uncommitted, and uninvolved.

In Luke's account of the life of Christ he commits three verses of scripture to tell us about Anna. He indicates that she was of a great age. In today's terms she would be considered a senior citizen. Her lineage was of the tribe of Asher. Asher's mother was Zilpah. When Laban gave Leah to Jacob he chose Zilpah as Leah's first handmaid. So Anna was considered one of God's chosen people.

Luke adds that she had been married. The bonds of marriage represents a natural as well as spiritual covenant. A covenant is a legal promise, contract, pact, treaty, bond, guarantee, or alliance. Anna's husband was her covering, companion, provision and protection. She must have felt secure in her husband's ability to protect and bring home the fruits of his labor. But after seven years, the scriptures say she was widowed. Anna is faced with a predicament. Her beloved husband, the object of her devotion, her provision, protection, companionship, and her passion is deceased.

She is now a victim of a broken marriage covenant through death. She has to present herself to what is considered the social services system of Jerusalem. Anna is positioned within the indigent class of people –the widows, orphans and the poor. She becomes a recipient of the benefit package God's law decreed for widows. In the wilderness God gave instruction to the children of Israel that the widow had His special protection. The Mosaic law decreed that they were not to be oppressed, or vexed. Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child. Exodus 22:22. If so they could plead their case before a judge. Creditors could not take or levy their raiment (clothing). Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger; nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's raiment to pledge:

Deuteronomy 24:17

For provision or to support themselves, widows were allowed to come behind the reapers and glean in the fields and vineyards. When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger; for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands. When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. Deuteronomy 24:19-21.

Anna was married for only seven years and Luke does not indicate that she had any children. If she did, they wouldn't have been old enough to work or help support her. Anna had to depend on the law of God to have a lifestyle quite possibly materially beneath what she had been accustomed to while she was married. Her very existence was bound to the consequences of a broken marriage covenant.

You don't have to be a widow to endure the consequences of broken promises and broken covenants. For instance, you can be some-one who has a perfect job, enjoying and getting paid well for what you do. But one day your employer might call you into the office to inform you of job cuts. Rent and all the bills you won't be able to pay will stress you out. It's because of broken covenants. Your broken covenant with the job will cause broken covenants with your landlord and creditors.

Or you can be someone who thinks you're all right with God. Money is no object, but you are unhappily married, you don't spend time with your children, and feel emptiness or voids in your life. You might attend church regularly. In fact, you've been going all your life, but you rarely praise and worship the Lord. You're tired, bored, burned out and it's hard to focus. You can't pay attention in church during the pastor's message. You don't make time to read or study the scriptures or pray. And when you do, it's in bed, but you fall asleep almost before you begin.

In each case, you have broken covenants of another kind. Broken covenant with your marriage, to your children, to your emotional, phy-sical and spiritual health and well being. Do you have broken coven-ants with family, career, responsibilities or God? Then it's time to find and "depart not from the temple" through the scriptures and prayer.

We don't know how long Anna lived in a lifestyle as a widow. But one day she came into the temple to honor God, maybe even to pay a vow. We are not told what determined her decision to remain in the temple. A divine appointment for a divine encounter with her God was the point in Anna's life, where Luke says, "she departed not from the temple." She chose to seek and pursue God in His temple.

Since Acts 2, we the believer are the temple of the Holy Spirit. How can we, like Anna, "depart not from the temple?" It is by making a voluntary decision to seek and pursue God with our Helper the Holy Spirit. Anna made a decision to enter into a new covenant, an eternal covenant with God. She decided to put herself on God's agenda, choosing to step into kingdom territory (the temple), refusing to come out. Out of that decision the Word says, she served Him through a devotion to fasting, prayers, night and day.

When Anna made a conscious and resolute decision to enter into an eternal covenant with God, to ignite her passion for Him, she aligned herself to experience the virtues of God through His presence. Of course she may have been restricted to designated places in the temple because she was not a priest. Wherever she was allowed to be, she committed herself to never departing from it because she must have discovered that in His presence there are dwelling places.

When you enter into God's presence through prayer, you are establishing an eternal covenant with Him. You can enter into a dwelling place where you find His virtue, the Lord your provider. In addition to your natural needs, He will provide you with spiritual food. Your daily bread, And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. Luke 4:4. He will provide His sincere milk, As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: 1 Peter 2:2. And He will provide the strong meat, But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. Hebrews 5:14. Your eternal, necessary food is all in the form of the Word and for your spiritual age (level of spiritual maturity).

He daily loads you down with benefits. Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah. Psalm 68:19. He gives the oil, which is the anointing you need to serve Him with joy and gladness. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. Psalm 45:7.

In this dwelling place of His presence, you find wisdom, knowledge and understanding of the Word of God, His anointing and joy. It is a place of processing and preparation that comes from prayer, hearing, reading and learning and most importantly speaking out the scriptures. You need the anointing that comes from the transformation and renewal that the Word and a prayer life brings. When we pray, we can get into God's presence where He reveals His virtue, Jehovah-Jireh, the Lord will provide. And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together. Genesis 22:8.

When you ignite your passion for God through prayer, you will find the dwelling place of communion, a place of prayer and meditation with the scriptures. As you read and speak out the scriptures, you are savoring them for your spiritual growth and development. The Word of God is the bread of life, the milk, the strong meat and the joy of the Lord, which gives you strength. You will bear an anointing that is the physical evidence or witness of what God and His Word is doing in your life.

At times this place of His presence will demand fasting and/or partaking of a diet of scripture God customizes for your circumstance. When I want to know more about God, as I pray, I focus on scriptures that reveal His mighty acts, or His mind and heart. There were times of illness and infirmities where I focused on healing scriptures and found great peace and comfort in them. I have found hope when I was unsettled about situations and circumstance in my life. God ministered the words and power of deliverance when I was bound by depression and oppression. He is a spiritual dietician who imparts health and strength to your spirit and satisfies your soul. In the dwelling place of His presence, God reveals himself as Jehovah-Rohi, the Lord my shepherd. A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. Psalm 23:1.

Another dwelling place of His presence is where you and God commune with one another. You offer up songs or prayers of thanksgiving, praise and worship. It is where you dedicate your mind, heart, soul and spirit to Him alone. Sing unto him, sing Psalm unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works. 1 Chronicles 16:9.

In this place of God's presence, He has shown me who and what to fellowship with--who and what I can entertain. What is it about your life, associations or environment that He might be saying "No" or "Yes" to? Does who and what you fellowship with or entertain please God? Are you praying to find out? When you pray do you listen and obey?

He will not abandon or forsake your prayers and fellowship of thanksgiving, praise and worship. It will draw a greater measure of His presence, at times so tangible to the natural senses. And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear. Exodus 32:18. He is Jehovah-Shammah, the Lord is there. It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there. Ezekiel 48:35.

This dwelling place is also where you find life and peace during your fellowship with Him. Does your fellowship with God re-energize, refresh and renew your spirit and bring you peace? In this dwelling place His virtue is Jehovah-Elyon, the Lord most high. I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high. Psalm 7:17.

When you “depart not from the temple” through prayer you will find a dwelling place of cleansing and purging. It is where you are spiritually cleaned up, cleaned out and stripped naked before God. This place has spiritual mirrors and God has strategically placed them so you won’t see anyone else but you. Daily, God draws me to this place of His presence and causes my spiritual eyes to be opened to reveal me to me. I have the opportunity to see and acknowledge my natural and spiritual wretchedness when He wants to deal with what is on and in me.

No matter how perfect you think you are, spiritually naked before God, everything gets exposed. We all know that you can’t bathe and get clean with your clothes on. You have to strip to get clean. In His presence He washes you with the water of His word. As you spend time to pray and study the word, you will realize that His presence exposes the things you missed or avoided when He told you to consecrate yourself. When I have acknowledged my sin or transgressions and submitted to the truth of the Word and the power of His presence, I have found over and over again, that He removes the spots, blemishes, and blots I couldn’t reach or fix myself. I have received His deliverance from entanglements with people, places and issues that required His sovereign, merciful, gracious and powerful intervention.

God uncts you to consecrate your eyes for proper observations, and to clean out your ears to hear His voice. My pastor, Dr. Robbie Horton says, hear Him accurately, precisely and distinctly. Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. Psalm 24:3-4. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. James 4:8.

In this place of His presence you learn to discern your times and seasons. What are you consuming and allowing to digest into your temple that could defile it? Every day, I make a decision to consecrate my mouth to change my speech so I might have a word in due season for the weary and the law of kindness on my lips. Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue. Psalm 120:2. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: 1 Peter 3:10.

In the natural, impurities inside you have to come out. This is even so in the spirit. Everything that is not like God, that bloats or puffs you up, like anger, lying, vanity and pride, everything that is not pleasing to Him has to be purged. Trying to hold on to a temperament that defiles your temple will eventually cause spiritual death. You have to go to the bathroom everyday, several times a day. You can't avoid it if you want to get healthy and stay healthy naturally and spiritually. In this dwelling place during prayer, you submit your whole body, mind, soul and spirit to consecration for holiness. Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Corinthians 7:1. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9. When we consecrate ourselves and submit to the sanctifying power of God, He reveals Himself as Jehovah-Mekaddishkem, the Lord our sanctifier. And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the LORD which sanctify you. Leviticus 20:8

God's presence brings natural and spiritual healing and deliverance. There is a balm in Gilead and the oil of joy that is better than a band-aid, better than antiseptic, better than ointments, and better than pills. When we pursue God through prayer we can access His dwelling place where He reveals Himself as Jehovah-Rapha, the Lord my Healer. ...I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee. Exodus 15:26.

God has a dwelling place where His presence is a spiritual covering for your head, your body, and feet. God inspects your spiritual wardrobe daily. Just as we concern ourselves with natural garments, we should also keep the spiritual garments open for inspection. Are they clean, are they torn, are they in order, do they fit properly, and most of all are they yours? Do you have the proper garment for the proper occasion? Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. Revelations 3:4. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. Revelations 16:15.

When you allow God to have His perfecting work in you, He transforms, prepares, builds and establishes your spiritual wardrobe. It will be the proper wardrobe for your age, the time and season of your life, for your purpose, and your future. He will perfect your garments daily. Your natural garments will reflect what He has done in you spiritually. He will dress you with Himself—the spiritual garments that only He can form, fashion and clothe you with—even a robe of righteousness. I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. Isaiah 61:10. God is Jehovah-Tsidkenu, the Lord our righteousness. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Jeremiah 23:6.

Just as you have a natural closet, you have a spiritual closet with God. This closet is your meeting place into His presence for all manner of prayer. Your armor for prayer and warfare, for supplication, thanksgiving, praise, worship and intercession is found here. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; Ephesians 6:12-18.

In this dwelling place, the Lord is Jehovah-Sabaoth, the Lord of host. And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh... 1 Samuel 1:3.

Luke says Anna prayed day and night in the natural. Spiritually, she prayed in the day—the seasons of good times and blessings. She prayed in the night—the seasons of challenge, darkness, valleys, the desert places and the wilderness. She prayed at all times without ceasing. In this dwelling place of His presence, you learn how to pray in the day and night seasons of your life. Most people tend to pray only during the “night” for emergencies, crisis or urgent needs. I believe it is more important to pray when times are good, during the “day seasons.” He is not a “gimme” God that you go after only when you need to satisfy your earthbound needs. When you pray in the “day” it reveals your desire to seek and know God’s face, mind and heart. You will discover His protective presence and the virtue of Jehovah-Nissi, the Lord my banner. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovahnissi: Exodus 17:15.

God has a dwelling place where His presence is a place of rest, of ceasing from your own labor. It is a place of security and trust. As you rest in God, even sleep, you submit yourself in trusting abandon to the safety and protection of God. I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety. Psalm 4:8. This dwelling place is where He becomes your refuge and it is a place of intimacy. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. Psalm 46:10. You allow God to minister His love and peace back to you. He reminds you of who you are and whose you are. The Lord reveals His mind--so you can have the mind of Christ. He reveals His heart to you--where you learn and know the heartbeat of God.

God reveals Himself to you as you rest and yield to His presence. He is Jehovah-Shalom, the Lord of our peace. Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. Judges 6:24.

In His presence the Lord imparts what He can entrust to you. You conceive destiny and purpose, then you will have to go back to the closet to travail and birth it out. That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, Ephesians 1:17-19.

When you ignite your passion for God through prayer it is possible to visit the aforementioned dwelling places everyday. He gives 24 hours /7 days-a-week invitations and the enabling ability through the Holy Spirit to meet and fellowship with Him. He will provoke you to seek out, and become familiar with every facet of His presence. Do you want to be so fascinated with God that you will inquire of Him like Moses? And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. Exodus 33:18.

The Prophetess Anna was 84 years old. She lived a long devoted life to God serving Him with prayer and fasting, day and night. She must have become familiar with some of His dwelling places. The day she decided to “depart not from the temple” transformed her life. Her steps were ordered of the Lord. She was in step and in the perfect timing of the Lord such that when she entered into a certain part of the temple, Luke says, “in that instant,” perfect timing caused her to witness Simeon speaking blessing over the young child Jesus Christ. And Luke says “Anna gave thanks likewise unto the Lord.” She came into agreement with a “Yes” and “Amen” to Simeon’s blessing of Jesus.

Because of her devotion to the temple and because she tapped into God’s presence with her prayers and fasting, Anna was able to serve God for years without burning out. She served Him with joy and gladness. I know the Lord was pleased with Anna. He is a rewarder to those who diligently seek Him and He gives back and renews your strength.

Anna sowed her life to God in the temple, therefore she was witness to the manifestation of a promise made to Simeon. The promise was that he would not see death until his eyes beheld the Lord’s Christ (the anointed one). And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. Luke 2:26. When Anna blessed the Lord likewise to rejoice over Simeon’s blessing, she received an unexpected blessing herself. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. Luke 2:38.

Do you rejoice with those who rejoice? Anna had another divine encounter with God where she was able to see the face of Jesus, the Messiah, the Saviour and Redeemer of all men. When Anna decided to depart not from the temple, she positioned herself to be processed for a divine appointment to receive a divine encounter. Her eyes beheld the manifested Son of God. She had the opportunity to touch the Anointed One. Anna’s experiences were orchestrated by God. She wasn’t too old to be released into a prophetic ministry beyond the walls of the temple.

How long have you been waiting for your release to serve God in a ministerial capacity? Luke says Anna was a prophetess because she spake of Him (Jesus) to all who looked for redemption. God put a witness and testimony in Anna's mouth so that all who believed, trusted and hoped in the promise of the Messiah, would know that He had come. The widow Anna was a prophetess AND evangelist.

At a young age, Anna made a decision to "depart not from the temple." Whatever was the basis for her decision, she received the manifestation of a promise given in Isaiah 54:1 which says: Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear (that was Anna); break forth into singing (in the dwelling place of Jehovah-Elyon, the Lord most high), and cry aloud (in the dwelling place of Jehovah-Sabaoth, the Lord of host), thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. Anna was a childless widow who birthed out spiritual children into the kingdom of God through her dedication to prayer, fasting and her testimony of the Messiah's coming.

She made a decision in her state of desolation as a widow, a place of broken covenant, to enter and not depart from the temple. She preferred God over any and everything. She made herself separate and available to the Lord, with dedication to a lifestyle of humility and daily sacrifice. She created an environment and dwelling place in her heart for God. She gave Him access to her heart (affections), her mind (thoughts), her soul (will and choices) and her might (resources).

Anna consecrated herself for holiness and God consciousness: loving what He loves, hating what He hates. And because she gave Him access to her dwelling places by drawing nigh to Him, God drew nigh, giving her access to His dwelling places. Ultimately, she revealed outwardly what was inwardly developed. Anna is an example to us, that no matter what station in life we are in—the high or low places--no matter what age, or gender, we are to ignite our passion for God through prayer. It is through prayer that we can access all the dwelling places of His presence. Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple. Psalm 65:4.

Today, your life does not have to be one of desolation, confusion or sickness. You don't have to be passionless. Even if everything seems perfect in your life, you still need to ignite your passion for God through prayer. Prayer is praise, thanksgiving, supplication, worship, intercession, and meditation. To enter into the presence of God in any of these levels require that we remember and acknowledge that God is holy and we must come before Him in holiness.

To approach Him in holiness is to come with a repentant heart, mind, soul and spirit. Approach Him as Jehovah-Mekaddishkem, the Lord our sanctifier, repentant of anything that would hinder answered prayer. Hinderances include sin, iniquity, transgressions, idolatry, incorrect motives, fear, condemnation, doubt, unbelief, unforgiveness, bitterness, the cares of the world, lack of faith or not knowing the Word of God. You can appropriate the redemptive work, righteousness and the name of Jesus Christ as your authority to enter into His presence.

Approach God with thanksgiving, praise and worship by declaring, proclaiming and decreeing the word over your supplications and petitions. When you declare Him Jehovah-Shammah, the Lord who is there, you can affirm your belief and faith in God, keeping your heart in expectancy that He will answer your request or fulfill your desires.

The scriptures say to enter His gates with thanksgiving. Approach God with thanksgiving to reverence His Power, edifying His strength and might, His rule, sovereignty, distinction and lordship. He is Jehovah-Elyon, the Lord most high. Thanksgiving helps you develop humility as you keep your focus on God and His kingdom.

Enter His courts with praise to esteem Him greatly, reverencing His name and authority. Praising God demonstrates your pleasure in knowing of Him, your joyfulness over belonging to Him, blessing His name, showing deference to Him, your adoration, reverence, and celebrating His virtues.

The tabernacle in the wilderness had an outer and inner court. The outer court was where the altar of sacrifice was located. The inner court in the tabernacle was the place of the oil, lampstand and incense. Now, we are the living tabernacle of the Holy Spirit. So when you enter the outer courts through prayer and praise, it is the place where you repent and surrender everything to God. The inner court is where you make your supplication and petitions known. It is a place of sacrifice, intercession, warfare and worship. Supplication and petitions are presenting your cares or needs. As you interact with God in supplication it is to seek His provisions of supply, health, well-being, direction and assistance.

Worship God to acknowledge who He is toward you and to acknowledge His character. Communion and fellowship through worship develops your spiritual ears to be open to hear and listen to Him and the opportunity to wait in His presence. Approaching God in worship is to exalt Him with accolades, recognition and magnification of His virtues. Also crown Him, proclaim His loftiness, fame, favor. To worship God is to boast of His omniscience (He is all knowing), His omnipotence (He is all power) and His omnipresence (He is all and in all).

Worshiping the Lord in spirit and in truth will lead you into the Holy of Holies. Through prayer we can reach the place of His presence known as the secret place or the dwelling place of God's glory and holiness. It is a place of reverence, of awe and stillness, a quiet place where He is Jehovah-Shalom. The scriptures say that no flesh shall glory in His presence. When you access the Holy of Holies you are where His presence and majesty enables you to experience peace, intimacy, communion and fellowship. Positionally you are at God's feet, waiting to hear His voice as you soak in His presence.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER

And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. Ezekiel 22:30

And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. Isaiah 59:16

The byproduct of a committed prayer life is the ability and wisdom to warfare and travail in the spirit through intercession, to bring forth or birth out what is revealed in the spirit into the natural realm. Intercession is warfare, standing in the gap on behalf of other people, situations and circumstances.

Intercessory prayers uncover, cancel, nullify, bind, uproot and tear down satan's access, assignments and effects. Intercession can render satan and his obstacles powerless and in its place release, build and plant kingdom alternatives.

When you approach God with intercession you acknowledge His authority and dominion. Prayers of intercession affect the world, kingdoms, systems, institutions, communities, families and individuals. It avails you the opportunity to exercise faith in your dominion and authority to speak in God's behalf.

An intercessor is a spiritual watchman or one who keeps an offensive and defensive posture in the spirit. The intercessor looks out for spiritual messages or instructions for when to open or close spiritual access. They keep an awareness of the spiritual activity of the enemy; and are able to foresee through revelation, which may result in a prophecy, word of wisdom or a word of knowledge going forth.

As a doorkeeper / gatekeeper they discern what to allow into the earth realm, to open and close spiritual doors, gates, access points, portals, and invite the work of the Holy Spirit. The intercessor binds the plans, assignments and work of principalities, powers and evil forces and makes reassessments to the alternatives and will of God.

Intercessory prayers counteract ruin or destruction by proclaiming and decreeing the Word of God to plant kingdom solutions. A spiritually alert and attentive intercessor will be able to perceive and observe what others fail to see. They build defensive spiritual hedges, walls and boundaries. It is important to vigilantly maintain spiritual vision, health, integrity and anointing.

Intercession is mandated for world leaders, systems, and issues that oppose God. Issues that oppose God are sin, iniquity, transgression, idolatry and all forms of wickedness. Those who don't know God, the harvest of souls, needs of family, friends and others, and most importantly every facet of the church is laid upon God's heart for our intercession.

As believers, we have been given the ministry of reconciliation. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; 2 Corinthians 5:18. That means that everyone, not just a handful of designated people can and should intercede. There is a responsibility to pray not only for ourselves but for others. We are to intercede for truth, justice, and righteousness to prevail by praying scriptural affirmations, proclamations, declarations, and decrees.

MEDITATION

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Philippians 4:8

Another method of prayer is Meditation. Meditation is focused thought, reflection and contemplation of God's Word, His work, His nature and His abilities.

One definition of meditation is to utter, groan, or ponder. It also means to rehearse in one's mind, or contemplate. An example is discursive meditation, which is pondering the text of the scriptures. Another definition is to dwell diligently, consider and heed, as in affective prayer or contemplative meditation. Affective prayer is inquiring of God about scripture to seek the meaning, understanding and revelation of the truth. Contemplative meditation is resting in the presence of the Lord.

Prayer through thanksgiving, praise, worship, intercession or meditation is a phenomenal spirit-to-spirit opportunity. In the holy place of God's presence, you will begin to learn and experience some of the virtues of God. According to scripture and through the result of consistent communion you will find that God, is exalted above all gods, He sits on the circle of the earth, He is the Lord our maker. He reigns over all creation. He is the wonderful counselor, everlasting father and the prince of peace. He is knowledge, wisdom, understanding and might, he is sovereign, the wheel in the middle of the wheel. He shall endure forever, He is God alone, a righteous judge, the Lord most high. He dwelleth in Zion, He is king forever, the highest, perfect in strength, governor among the nations, the King of glory, and Lord of hosts. He is upright, the God of truth, goodness, He is marvelous, He is mercy, faithful, longsuffering, lovingkindness, the fountain of life, peace, the Lord God of Israel, the living God, most high, Lord of lords, king over all the earth, mighty God, judge in the earth. He has all power, he is Jehovah, Adoni, Eloyhim, Yahweh God, the almighty, the Holy one of Israel. He has all dominion, power, authority, He is glorious, good, strong and mighty, mighty in battle, a sun and shield, full of compassion, patient, kind, the most high over all the earth. He is gracious, plentious in truth, omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent, and upright. He is the creator of all things, great in Zion, slow to anger, very great, clothed with honor and majesty. He is the all sufficient one, a consuming fire, great and awesome, a light, there is none like him. He is greatly to be feared, He is holy, perfect, upright, and worthy to be praised.

Through a relationship with God borne out of prayer, you will learn to know, experience and declare what He does for you. He is the deliverer, our redeemer; a guide, teacher, preserver, our shield, our banner, father to the fatherless, a judge of the widows. He is our counselor, a portion forever, our refuge, rock, fortress, buckler, and horn of our salvation. He is a high tower, a hiding place, our helper and a present help in the day of trouble, our sure defense, a shelter, a strong tower, the rock of our strength, a strong habitation, a dwelling place. He corrects, reproves, instructs, chastens, and rebukes us. He is the comforter, He preserveth the soul, He is forgiving, a healer, satisfies us with good things, gracious, opens His hands and satisfies every living thing, the lifter of our head. He is the God of our salvation, the strength of our life, the health of our countenance, our guide, hope, and trust, not far from us, our abundance and increase. He will spare the poor, He speaks and we hear, He is the supplier of all our needs. He is love, joy, patience, happiness, He is our keeper, and His goodness follows us all the days of our life.

Whatever methods you employ, through prayer and the knowledge of the scriptures, to facilitate access and audience with our creator you will reap the reward of experiencing a foretaste of His infinite glory. When you “Pray What God Says” then you will taste and see that the Lord is Good!
